George Washington as a young surveyor

Trigonometer c. 1857

Surveyors Quadrant c. 1770

...Honor, Integrity, Responsibility

I could not help taking a more extensive view of the vast inland navigation of these United States, from maps and the information of others; and could not but be struck with the immense extent and importance of it, and with the goodness of that Providence, which has dealt its favors to us with so profuse a hand. Would to god, we may have wisdom enough to improve them:

George Washington 1783

SURVEYORS • STATESMEN • PRESIDENTS

“Without virtue and without integrity, the finest talents and the most brilliant accomplishments can never gain the respect, and conciliate the esteem, of the truly valuable part of mankind.” George Washington 1799

Gunter's Chain c. 1770

Gurley Mountain Light Transit with Burt Solar attachment c. 1890

Burt Solar Compass c. 1892

“As Surveyors and Mappers, the professional responsibility entrusted to us by our forefathers of this God given nation, demands no less than the highest level of commitment, honor and integrity to insure the proper care of this great land we call home.”

Gregory B. Clary, President
